Ensemble Analysis

Regional A guards are comprised of a beginning level of design and excellence.

Consider who, what and why each event connects and unfolds within the composition.

Composition

Excellence

Consider the depth and quality of:

- Use of design elements in form, body and equipment
- Design and orchestration both through time and in layered events
- Logic and correctness of design
- Reflection or enhancement of the audio including dynamic effort qualities
- Characteristics, detail, nuance

How successful were the performers as they showed:

- Achievement of spacing, line, timing and orientation
- Achievement of beginning effort qualities
- Adherence to style in equipment, movement or motion
- Training, concentration, stamina and recovery

EXCELLENCE

0 to 06 The arrangement generally lacks readability.	0 to 06 Performers are generally unaware of responsibilities.
07 to 29 The arrangement occasionally displays an awareness of the fundamentals of design in equipment, movement or form. The visual occasionally relates to the sound, most often relative to the basic melody. A need for unification of ideas is obvious. Orchestration of equipment and movement is infrequent. Design elements are singly presented. Incomplete composition might limit scoring potential.	07 to 29 Performers occasionally achieve some of the responsibilities involving space, line and time. Performers are still learning the principle of moving through space at this level. There is sporadic display of uniformity in ensemble responsibilities as relates to drill or form. Breaks and flaws are frequent. Recovery is not yet understood or attempted. Concentration is a struggle. Precision and accuracy through equipment or movement is still weak. Incompletion may limit performers' opportunity to demonstrate skill and achievement.
30 to 59 The arrangement displays knowledge of the fundamentals of design and logic in equipment, movement, and form with a beginning reflection of the basic structure of the soundtrack. Dynamic changes are occasionally included. The unity of design elements may be questionable or incomplete. There is some orchestration of the equipment and movement; however, elements are often still single in presentation. The principles of design are basically correct for this level. The composing process shows an understanding of how to blend elements to create a pleasing whole. Ideas are beginning to flow more logically from one to another. The work may still be in progress, but the design ideas are clear.	30 to 59 The ensemble achieves a more consistent demonstration of the principles involving space, line and time. Ensemble responsibilities are taking on greater clarity, and there is occasional enhancement of the skills with dynamics. Moderate uniformity exists in ensemble responsibilities of drill, or form at this level. Breaks and flaws occur but recovery is occasionally beginning to be attempted. Concentration and stamina are starting to develop. Methods and techniques reflect a growing degree of physical and mental development for this class. A style is recognizable but is not well developed. The work may be in progress, but performers have adequate opportunity to demonstrate skills.
60 to 89 The arrangement displays a sound knowledge of the fundamentals of design and logic in equipment, movement, and form. The composition explores some dimensionality through equipment or body in reflection of the soundtrack. Dynamic effort changes are becoming apparent. Unity connects the design. Design is correct for this level. The composing process shows logic and design from idea to idea.	60 to 89 Performers understand the responsibilities of space, time and form. Performers show achievement within a basic range of expressive effort changes. There is a growing level of consistency relative to drill and form. Breaks and flaws are infrequent and recovery is growing. Concentration and stamina are moderately displayed. Achievement is consistent and ongoing for this class level. Style is growing.
90 to 100 The arrangement displays a successful blend of design techniques in equipment, movement, and form. The design reflects the soundtrack with greater dimensionality in the equipment &amp; movement composing. The unity of elements shows good understanding of design connection. The composition is correct and shows development for this level. The composing process involves sound horizontal orchestration from idea to idea.	90 to 100 Performers apply a good understanding of techniques in ensemble responsibilities with respect to space, time and form. A growing range of effort qualities and dynamics is applied. The ensemble displays good uniformity in responsibilities relative to drill or form. Breaks and flaws may still occur, but recovery is growing. Concentration and stamina are demonstrated successfully. Ensemble methods and techniques reflect a good level of development within this class. Style is understood and recognizable.
